Newly Named Community Project Space Celebrates New Partnership with Alterna Savings.

Lakeshore Arts is excited to announce the newly named Community Project Space, formerly known as the Smith Zone Gallery, has partnered with Alterna Savings. Alterna Savings, will be sponsoring the Mimico-based Community Project Space until July 2018. During this time exhibitions by local high school students, emerging Toronto artists and youth arts programs will be showcased in the space.

Alterna Savings is a full-service financial institution which is entirely owned and controlled by their members/customers. They have served Ontarians for over 110 years and now operate from 23 locations across the province. They commit to supporting the well-being of their members, employees and communities; not name-less shareholders.
